Drapery Dep't Specials

Special values in Drapery Materials and Lace Curtains to make it of interest for you to come to this Department to-day.

Real Irish Point Lace Door Panels, full size, of fine net, $1.25 grade, 75c

Hand-made real Arabian Panels, for full size doors, on fine cable $1.75 net, $2.75 value, each ... Five patterns of fine Saxony Lace Curtains, full size, in very select styles and good wearing quality, $2.75 $1.88 quality, a pair Six patterns latest Cable Net Curtains, designs taken from expensive makes, $4.00 value, ............

Real Brussels, Irish Point, Arabian, Battenburg and Novelty Effects, latest make, worth up to $6.00, $3.75 All-Silk Mautel and Window Drapes, 3 styles and colors, were $2.49, $1.98 Get our prices on all styles of Window Shades. We can save you 10 to 20 per cent. on any kind or style.

-Third Floor.

yards long, fringed, in a variety of

PETTIS DRY GOODS CO.

&&&&&&&&&&

CPRING is a little backward, and good desirable green produce is coming in slowly. We get the best of it, but most of our customers yet prefer the low-priced first quality canned goods to the other.

Properly prepared you'd think to-day's offering fresh from the garden - this year, instead of last.

MOORE'S SPECIAL FOR FRIDAY: Favorite Green or Wax Beans .... 100

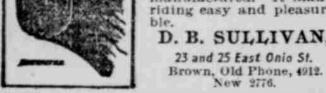

The N. A. MOORE CO. -GROCERS-

162 and 164 North Illinois Street.

'Phones 892.

NOW IS THE TIME cles fitted with the Kelley Springfield Rubber It is the most durable manufactured. It makes riding easy and pleasura-D. B. SULLIVAN, 23 and 25 East Onio St.

NEWS OF THE THEATERS

"THE LIBERTY BELLES," BY HARRY B. SMITH, AT ENGLISH'S TO-NIGHT.

A Melodrama at the Park Has a Villain that Can See at Night, but Is Blind in the Daytime.

At the Theaters To-Day.

ENGLISH'S .- "The Liberty Belles," 8:1

GRAND.-Vaudeville, 2:15 and 8:15 p. m. PARK .- "The Great White Diamond," 2 EMPIRE .- "The Cracker Jacks," 2 and 8

"The Liberty Belles" To-Night.

Harry B. Smith's comedy, "The Liberty Belles," which will be acted at English's impersonate seminary girls, but they are dignified with individual parts instead of being massed in the conventional chorus. All of them have been prominent in the choruses of the large musical extravanganzas of recent years. Among the principal members of the company are Harry Davenport, Crissle Carlysle, Etta Butler, Sandol Milliken and the McCoy sisters, dancers. The comedy is well sprinkled with musical says:

Melodrama at the Park.

One Jan Van Hock, who can see at night his talent is vigorous enough and his techni- at 8:30 o'clock and besides the play to but is blind in the day, is the most con- cal equipment adequate to command a spicuous character in "The Great White Diamond," which is being acted at the now those who heard him before begin to Park Theater. Van Hock's peculiarity ask themselves what impression of his art gives his personality a tingle of unique horror, though the disease of nyctalopia is What intellectual stimulus did he give? simple enough if rare. Von Hook is one of | What range of emotions did he express? the most-hissed villains that have been on view at the Park in several seasons. He is played with proper intensity by Louis Howard.

Walter Fessler, the author of the play, retires to a more congenial sphere; if, on notes on the programme that a part of the | the contrary, the meeting of the artist and story he took from "The Great Hesper," a his public with the piano as a medium of novel by Frank Barrett. But "the rest of intercourse left an impression of keen enthe play," says Fesler, "with all the sensa- joyment aside from that of surprised and tional effects and comedy, were originated gratified curiosity, the artist has won a by me." All through the play there is a struggle for possession of a great white diamond. Sometimes Van Hock, the nyc- lating and agreeable. All these have their | the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Knight talops, has it and at other times Robert Thorn, a virtuous young miner, or some other reputable person, holds it. The sentimental interest of the play centers in Thorn and a pretty girl called "the Kid," a daughter of an old miner. Florence Huntley impersonates "the Kid" in lively man-

The first scene is the library of Sir Edward Lascelle, in London. Thorn has brought the diamond from South Africa to Lascelle. The other scenes are a small hotel in the Sierra Nevada mountains, a near-by railroad station and a deserted

James Thornton and Dr. Munyon.

"I claim to be the most original monologuist on the stage to-day," said James T. Thornton, who is playing at the Grand this week. "When I first went into the business I wore a black Prince Albert coat. So many actors began to wear them that I changed to gray. If they copy the gray I'll wear blue. Every word that I utter and every note that I sing is my own. I have written a number of songs. The most notable one is 'When You were Sweet Sixteen.' I didn't make money out of it, but | rived yesterday to remain until after the the publishers did. I should have made | wedding. $50,000 from that song. I have eight songs in my trunk now and I don't know who to give them to. I want to see which publisher is the least dishonest. If I publish them myself the dealer that sells them will be boycotted by the rest of the houses. What can a man do? There should be a law to prevent the publishers from swindling the writers. "I was playing in Worcester, Mass., four weeks ago. I went on with a Dr. Munyon make-up-a large pompadour, you know. I held up one finger and sang a song about all the different things I cured. When the song was finished I didn't get a hand. I sang it in a very solemn manner. After the song I got them to laughing. That same night while I was talking to a clerk in the Haines House a man came up and asked for Dr. Munyon. The clerk told him that he was not stopping at the house. 'Well,' he replied, 'they told me over to the theater that he was stopping here, and I just heard him lecture over at the theater. I knew then why I didn't get any applause after that first song. They had taken me story before the Travel Club of the Y. M. were married last evening at the home of

was on the programme and they had no card boxes at the sides of the stage, so I suppose they thought I was the real thing.

Now that sounds pretty strong, but it is

"Ben-Hur" Well Received in London. LONDON, April 3 .- "Ben-Hur" was produced at the Drury Lane Theater to-night. The play went smoothly throughout and was received by an audience which crowded the theater, with every sign of satisfaction. The charlot race was splendidly managed and was greeted with enthusiastic demonstration. The staging and the processions, the general mounting and the acting of the play were admirable. Robert Taber, as Ben-Hur, and Constance Collier, as Iras, were capital. The play seems destined for opinion concerning the literary and dra- kins's hospitality were Miss Lucy Valenmatic merits of the piece. Most of the tine, Miss Ruth Sloan, Miss Ruth Woodpapers agree that "Ben-Hur" could be im- | small, Miss Hazel Dunlap, Miss Clara proved by the curtailment of the final Moody, Mr. Louis Dunlap, Mr. Ralph scenes. They are unanimous in declaring Brown, Mr. Harry Tincher, Mr. Ray Selscenes. They are unanimous in declaring that the splendid spectacular effects will insure it a long run. The extremes of criticism are represented by the Daily Graphic, which says that "Ben-Hur" is an overwhelming and unmistakable triumph, and by the Times, which, while it praises the staging and acting of "Ben-Hur," is severe on the play, and says if it succeeds it will be by virtue of the scenery and sensations and in spite of the tedlousness of the

Miss Loftus in London.

LONDON, April 3.-An agreement was reached to-day between Cecilia Loftus and the manager of the Alhambra Music Hall. Miss Loftus will appear at the Lyceum Theater in "Faust" with Sir Henry Irving, but should she return to the music hall stage the Alhambra will have the first right to her services.

Notes of the Stage.

Charles Frohman, who is in London, has engaged the American right of production of the dramatization of Gilbert Parker's novel, "The Right of Way."

"Merrie England," an opera on the Gilbert and Sullivan pattern, by Capt. Basil Hood and Edward German, the composer, has been produced in London. The scene is Windsor, and among the characters are Queen Elizabeth, Sir Walter Raleigh and the Earl of Essex.

The musical comedies, "The Explorers" and "The Burgomaster," the first new here and the second familiar, will be acted at English's on Thursday and Friday nights

"All on Account of Eliza," by Leo Dietrichstein, was produced at the Shaftesbury Theater, London, last night with Madge Lessing and James E. Sullivan in the principal parts. The farce was acted in this country by Louis Mann and Clara Lipman.

Notes of Music Events.

Seats may be purchased at the Y. M. C. symphony, "Lenore." A composition by Mr. Van der Stucken, conductor of the orchestra, called "Idylle," and the overture to Weber's "Euryanthe" also will be among the numbers. The soloists will be Jose Marion, violinist, who is concertmaster of the orchestra, and Miss Bessie Tudor, soprano.

Fanny Morris Smith, writing of Paderewski's continued supremacy among planists,

"Every planist that makes his debut in America is open to three phases in his artistic experience: He confronts his public for the first time and they learn whether hearing. If these suffice he is able to make a successful first season. He returns, and remains in their minds. Were his gifts significant to their own mental needs? His reputation as a virtuoso remains as a source of attraction, but another element begins to control the result. If the verdict be, 'I have heard him, he is great; but I know what he can do'-the virtuoso soon permanent hearing. Many artists are interesting, intellectual, surprising, stimupublic. But now and then-once in a century-a man appears who can interpret the keenest, holfest feelings of our personal experience; a man who can put into music | and Mr. Frederick Christian Peters, son of and utter for us what we have no words to speak for ourselves, who knows how we feel, feels with us, and in the presence of whose music we experience inward peace dressed in a lace robe over white satin, and refreshment. For us, that man is Paderewski. Thus Mr. Paderewski and his American public have entered upon the third and lasting phase of the artistic relation. He was heard; he was enjoyed, and now we cannot hear him enough-because he fulfills the highest ministry of music in his relation to us. His message is human, wise and comforting. He does us good."

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jordan have returned from a two weeks' visit in New

Miss Anne Fraser will return to-morrow | Logansport; Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Barnet, from a week's visit in Chicago with Miss Miss Constance Lewis and Miss Evelyn Holliday have returned to their work at

Bryn Mawr College. Miss Miller, of Franklin, who is to be a bridesmaid for Miss Elma Woollen, ar-

The Kappa Club will meet to-morrow afternoon with Mrs. Pruitt, 1904 Ashland avenue, instead of with Miss Wallace, as the programme announces.

The annual business meeting of the Conversation Club will be held at the home of Mrs. Samuel J. Brash, 2020 College avenue, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Montthis afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The members of the Industrial Embroidery Circle will entertain their husbands this evening at the home of Dr. J. C.

Stevenson, 923 North Beville avenue. The engagement is announced of Miss Anna Clarice Watts, daughter of Louis N. Watts, and James Edwin Stewart, of | will reside. Mr. Morehouse is the manearly in June.

The first section of the Ladies' Society of the Fourth Presbyterian Church will hold a sale of fancy and useful articles this afternoon and evening in the church parlors. Supper will be served.

ELWOOD, Ind., April 3.-Mr. Washington Callahan and Miss Alice Mitchell, two Mrs. O. B. Jameson will read an original of the best known young people of the city. seriously. One of Dr. Munyon's pictures | C. A. to-night. After the literary pro- | the Rev. L. C. Howe. Both the contracting | terday.

gramme a social hour will be spent and parties came to Elwood from Dublin and will make this their future home.

Musicale at the White House. WASHINGTON, April 3 .- The first social light refreshments will be served. All friends of the association are invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Peebles Nevin, jr.

Franklin Vonnegut and Mrs. Robert Kipp

re at the head of the section and their asdistants are Mrs. McCurdy, Mrs. Bachman,

Mrs. Hugh Hanna, jr., observed her first at home yesterday at her new home on East Eleventh street. She was assisted in receiving her callers by Miss Deborah D.

Moore, Mrs. Hugh H. Hanna and Mrs. M.

n the Thursday afternoons during April.

were Mrs. George Edwin Hunt, Mrs. Will iam Line Elder, Mrs. Alfred F. Potts, Mrs. Augustus Lynch Mason and Mrs. Charles

Mrs. J. Richard Francis is visiting friends

n Shelbyville. Yesterday a luncheon was given there in her honor by Miss Conroy ville for the day were Mrs. Charles Pa-quette, Mrs. W. W. Carter, Mrs. Owen

Mrs. T. E. Collins and daughter gave a dinner last evening at their new home, 413

East Michigan street, and their guests were

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Nell, Mr. and Mrs.

Andrew Smith, Mr. George Smith, Mr. Law,

Mr. Talbott, Mr. Conduitt, Mr. and Mrs.

Mrs. Brooks, Miss Brown and Miss Grote.

Messick, Miss Irene Martin, Miss Bootman,

Misses France and Lilla Allison were the Columbia Club. Their guests included a hostesses for a luncheon yesterday at the number of out-of-town visitors, Miss Johnson, of Michigar City, Miss Grant, of Springfield, O., Miss Jessie Wallace, of

son, Kan., and Miss Grace Galloway, of Cincinnati. After the luncheon the party attended the vaudeville performance and were entertained at dinner in the evening

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Atkins entertained

a number of young people from Franklin

lers, Mr. Norman Pritchard, Mr. Mark

Miller, all of Franklin, and Miss Edith

Mrs. Frank Ritchie and Mrs. H. H.

Friedley gave a larg reception yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Ritchie on lax, which wound the staircase and draped

the doorways and tall palms and ferns, were the decorations of the parlors and hallway. Scarlet was the color used in the dining room and a great basket of scarlet tulips adorned the table. Assisting in the

Mabel Schmidt, Miss Caroline Marmon,

Miss Edith Fountain, Miss Beatrice Byers

and Miss Florence Cothrell. The young

eople assisting were Misses Agnes Ritchie,

Ruth Maxwell, Marguerite Ladley, Dora

Wilker, Miss Florence Plum, Mrs. J. C

Ingram, Mrs. Charles W. Moores, Mrs. H. T. Conde, Mrs. D. T. Praigg, Mrs. W. W. Critchlow, Mrs. F. W. Wood, Mrs. E. A.

Hendrickson, Mrs. Guy E. Hawkins and

Mrs. Martin W. Mansfield opened her new home yesterday with a reception, to which her many friends were invited meet her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Sampsell W. Mansfield, a bride of last winter, who was Miss Jessie Moury, of Ashland, O. The

the hallway and several rooms, were arsmilax, as was the long stairway. On the table in the hall was a big cluster of white tulips in a Japanese bowl, and in the deep window of the stairway were vases of American Beauties. In the parlor the mantles were arranged with pink roses set amid delicate maidenhair ferns. Punch was served in the library, where the carnations and tuilps were scarlet, and the young girls who assisted wore gowns in which the colors, scarlet and white, were combined

The dining room was especially pretty.

In the center of the table, on a mat of lace and gold embroidered satin, was a big basket filled with Easter lillies and daffodils, and the lights were all shaded with yellow tulip shades which cast a golden during the receiving hours. Mrs. Mansfield was assisted by Mrs. Major Taylor,

Mrs. Chapman Williams, Mrs. Earl Ogle,

Thomas Hibben, Miss Voss. Mrs. Olive T.

field, Misses Helene Hibben, Mabel Rose,

lery, Evadne Hayward, Helen Carsson, give a card party for Mr. and Mrs. S. W.

DRAMATIC CLUB PLAY TO-NIGHT.

formance of the season at the Propylacum to-night. The curtain will rise promptly formance of especial interest. The play, ton B. McCulloch, will be acted by Mrs.

McCulloch, Mrs. Gerritt M. Ryan, Mr.

Charles A. Layman and Dr. Francis O.

Dorsey. The artists who will present the vaudeville bill are Mrs. Murphy, sketch;

Mrs. Charles Shaler, vocalist; Mr. W. B.

Wheelock, monologue, and Mr. Harry Murphy, sleight of hand. The committee in charge of the evening's entertainment is

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Hume, Mr. and Mrs.

J. S. Holliday, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Ross

PETERS-KNIGHT.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., April 3 .- Society

was out in force this evening as guests at

on Spy Run avenue, attending the marriage of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Jayne,

John C. Peters. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Moffat, of the First Presbyterian Church. The bride was trimmed in duchess lace Her maids were

Miss Alice Nelson, of Logansport, and

Misses Valette Rurode, Katherine Hoffman, Florence Barrett, Flora Peters,

Knight and Helen

were Misses Alice Knight, Helen and Bertha Peters and Blanche Reuss. The groom's best man was his brother William. After the wedding supper the guests assembled at the Wayne Club to enjoy the dance given in honor of the bride and groom by Mr. Will Peters. Among the 150 guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilson, Mr. C. W. Keller, Mr.

Will Elliott and Mr. Jesse Tabor, all of

of Cincinnati; Mrs. C. M. Knickerbocker,

Hillsdale, Mich.; Mrs, George Williams,

berly, Neenah, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. W. Z.

Stuart, Chicago; Mr. William D. Wiggins,

Brownsville, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. H.

MOREHOUSE-HAMILTON.

Hamilton, whose home is in Michigan, and

Mr. J. Burt Morehouse, of Indianapolis, were married this evening at 7:30 o'clock gomery by the Rev. W. F. Smith, of the

been the drawing teacher in the public schools for the past three years. They left to-night for Indianapolis, where they

CALLAHAN-MITCHELL.

Cambridge, O.; Miss Grace Graham.

Columbus, O.; Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kim-

The ribbon bearers

and Mr. Fred Ayres.

this city.

Brooks Sale, Indianapolis.

pany, of Indianapolis.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal.

"Over Sunday," dramatized by Mrs. Carleglow over the room. An orchestra played

Mrs. I. N. Ritchie.

nospitalities of the afternoon were Miss

North Pennsylvania street. Southern smi-

Miller with Miss Orin Woollen.

and Mrs. Chauncey Clark.

by Miss Edna Randall.

and a number of her friends from this city attended. Those who went to Shelby-

. Moore. Mrs. Hanna, jr., will be at home

Miss Keizer and Miss Weigand.

House to-morrow afternoon. Mrs.

Sewickley. Pa., who are visiting in the will be entertained at dinner this evening by Miss Katherine Wallick. To- event of the post-lenten season at the COURT HOLDS THEY DO NOT AFFECT morrow evening they will be the guests | White House took place to-night, when of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Hawkins at the President and Mrs. Roosevelt entertained a large number of guests at a musicale at The Ladies' Club of the German House will give its April euchre party at the which Paderewski played.

> ers were set for eighteen, the guests including Secretary and Mrs. Hay, Senator Hanna, Mr. and Mrs. Paderewski, Representative W. H. Moody, Representative Lucius N. Littauer, Colonel and Mrs. Kitson, Hon. Cornelius N. Bliss, Mrs. Reeve Merritt, Mrs. West Roosevelt, Miss Phelps, Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Winslow and Miss Cecelia Beaux.

The guests at the musicale, which began Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baird, of Louisville, at 10 o'clock, included, in addition to those will arrive to-morrow to visit Mrs. Milton who had been to dinner, the remaining A. Woollen and family and remain for the members of the Cabinet and their families, Dark-Woollen wedding. Other guests who the French and German ambassadors, Hon. will arrive later are Mr. S. M. Parcell, of and Mrs. Don M. Dickinson and Miss Dick-Louisville, Mr. Charles Baird, of Detroit, inson, of Michigan, a number of members and Mr. and Mrs. Johnson Clancy, of Louisof the Senate and House and representatives of resident society. Paderewski's pro-Mrs. John L. Ketcham and Miss Elizagramme embraced selections from his own beth Ketcham entertained at luncheon yescompositions and from Beethoven, Chopin terday in honor of Mrs. Leon O. Bailey. The friends invited to meet Mrs. Bailey

MAN THAT MADE J. WALDERE KIRK "LOOK LIKE 30 CENTS."

Frank Elsinore Jones Said to Be "Best Dressed" Commercial Traveler - Other Visitors.

Frank Elsinore Jones, said to be the "best dressed" traveling man in all the States, is at the Denison Hotel with seven or eight big trunks full of gay raiment. To Lafayette, Miss Anna Boggs, of McPher- put it in the language of the boy of the street, Jones is here again with his "glad rags." He travels for a New York establishment that makes a specialty of woolen goods. During yesterday he changed clothes three or four times, and last night he was last night. The party was composed of of tronsers baggy at the knee would give

With all this reputation for stylish dressing Jones is a very modest man with a good business head on his shoulders. He got his reputation for being the "best dressed" commercial man a few years ago in Kansas City. He walked into a hotel one day and registered his name. About that time highly colored waistcoats were coming into style. Jones wore a red one and other garments to match it in proper style. As he turned away from the desk he shall be suspended and his interest in a young fellow standing by remarked to the property shall be forfeited. The deed the clerk: "Look at that fellow; he makes also provides that if the grantee should . Waldere Kirk look like 30 cents.'

a few years ago he was traveling on the hours each spent in teaching or demonstrat-Ohio river between Cincinnati and Louis- ing in proportion to the total amount of ville and the boat took fire. It was de- labor in conducting the entire course of cided to make a raft of Jones's trunks and instruction. Provision is also made for save the women and children in that way. This was accomplished and the people were saved. It is said the trunks then floated to Louisville, where the colored popula- ber of hours of service and labor, providtion took possession of them and quarreled ing such labor is used in the interests of over the contents. As the story goes Editor | the college and contributed to the pay-Watterson wrote an editorial calling at- ment of liens and other claims. tention to the spectacle of a Northern man coming down there and inciting a riot to be invalid and granted a fee simple among the colored people.

A WOMAN'S POCKETBOOK.

flowers, ferns and strands of Southern smi-It Contained $200, but She Left It on Two Wives and Two Husbands Ask lax, which were used in the decoration of a Chair. ranged in an artistic manner. The archways of all the doors and windows were framed and draped with a profusion of the

walked into the Denison Hotel dining room | her husband, Joseph Clinton Mills, for difor dinner. She was a guest of the house, vorce. She alleges that for two years he but had been out for the afternoon and has not made suitable provision for the did not take time to go to her room and support of herself and their two children, leave her hat and coat. She left these ar- and that she has provided for them by her ticles in Parlor B, which is almost oppo- own daily labor. She avers that while she site the dining-room entrance. After dinner | was providing for them her husband on she returned to the parlor, picked up her Aug. 20, 1900, refused to speak to her, and coat and hat and started to her own room. | until June 19, 1901, refused to speak to her Before reaching her apartment she discov- or recognize her as his wife. On the latered that her pocket-book, containing about | ter day she avers that he took their oldest two hundred dollars, was missing. Im- child, Louis Herman Mills, eleven years mediately she returned to the dining room old, a horse and phaeton she had purchased and called to the "second head waiter." with her money and part of their house-She explained that she had left her pocket- hold goods and left her. She avers that book on the table and pointed to the chair | since that time he has lived within a few she had occupied. The man who waited on squares of her home, but has not allowed Mrs. John F. Wild, Mrs. Theresa Voss her was called, but had not seen the pocket- her or their eight-year-old daughter to see

Smith, Mrs. Edward B. Hutchinson, Mrs. Henry A. Mansfield, Mrs. Thomas A. Winterrowd, Mrs. Edwin A. Hendrickson, Mrs. table." the woman declared in an annoyed Sterling R. Holt, Mrs. Pierre Gray, Mrs. tone. None of the employes in the dining room had seen the pocket-book and the Byron, Mrs. Elliott Perkins, jr., Misses Annie and Benie Wiegand, Miss Bessie time "Jim," the head waiter, had gone into Byfield, Miss Mary Reaume, Miss Porterthe parlor and had seen the pocket-book lying on the chair where the woman had Lydia Parry, Margaret Cook, Bertha Malleft it before dinner. He was afraid to Adabel Chenoweth, Corinne Mansfield and sight. When the woman came from the Master Freeland Mansfield and Miss Jessica dining room protesting that she had left Wood. To-night Mr. and Mrs. Mansfield will the article on the table, "Jim" approached her and handed her the missing property, telling her where she had left it. She thanked him sweetly, but it did not occur to her to apologize to the men in the dining

> "That just goes to show," remarked Manager George Fulwell, "how easily people can be mistaken.'

CUSTER'S OLD REGIMENT.

G. W. Biegler to Be Second Lieutenant in the Seventh Cavalry.

last night on his way to Fort Thomas, Ky. her child when they were ill. An allowance He recently has been appointed second lieutenant in the Seventh Cavalry and has been ordered to report at Fort Thomas. The Seventh Cavalry is now in Cuba, where it has been doing service since the invasion of the United States troops, but has been ordered back to the State and will take up quarters at Chickamauga Park. Biegler saw service in the earlier stages of the Spanish-American war under Colonel Barnett, and was afterward appointed captain in the Twenty-eighth Volunteer Infantry. He served for sixteen months in the Philippines, and in a battle with natives was wounded in the thigh. On account of particularly gallant service in this battle Capt. Bigler was awarded a medal by Congress. He was also breveted a major of volun- Paul Bonner Asks $5,000, and A. H.

The Seventh Cavalry was General Custer's old outfit. Two troops of this command were slaughtered in a battle with Indians. After Custer's death Major Reno . succeeded to the command. The Seventh is known as the famous Indian fighting regiment. It is said that until the year of the world's fair the Seventh saw very little of civilization, being for years on the fron- and that he refused to accept it. He altier. Biegler is one of the owners of the Terre Haute Journal, a German newspaper. For several months he has been connected with the Terre Haute Gazette in an editorial capacity.

Indiana's Crop of Liquor.

A. E. Nowlin, revenue collector for the Lawrenceburg district, was at the Denison that Indiana contributes close to $24,000,000 | and will be disabled for life. a year to the government in revenue collections. Seventy-five per cent. of this amount is collected on spirituous liquors. Mr. Nowlin says that a distillery recently put in operation at Hammond is grinding 2,000 bushels of grain a day. It has a ca-SHELBYVILLE, Ind., April 3.-Miss Dora pacity of 4,000 bushels, which means 20,000 gallons of liquor.

Democrats' State Affairs.

William H. O'Brien, chairman of the West-street Methodist Church, only a few friends being present at the ceremony. The a day or two with Secretary Reilly. The bride is well known in this city, having next meeting of the Democratic state committee will be held May 22 at French Lick Springs. The Democratic editors will meet invited ex-Governor Stone, of Missouri, to New Orleans. The wedding will take place | ager of the Globe Mantle and Light Com- | attend their meeting and are expecting him | to accept the invitation.

At the Hotels.

Mrs. Peter E. Studebaker, of South Bend. was a guest at the Grand Hotel last night. W. Bent Wilson, editor of the Lafayette Journal, took luncheon at the Grand yes-

MEDICAL RULES INVALID

PROPERTY OWNERSHIP.

Preceding the musicale the President and | Peculiar Deed for Physio-Medical College-Troubles of Two Wives Asking Divorce.

> A deed of an unusual character has been filed as an exhibit in the complaint of the Physio-Medical College of Indiana against George Hasty and fifty-seven other defendants and the unknown heirs of Melle Veenboer to quiet title. The contents of the deed were brought to light yesterday when Judge McMaster held that the Physio-Medical College of Indiana had a fee simple title to the property at the corner of Alabama and North streets, and that the limitations and provisions of the deed, which were very restrictive in every par-

> The property was originally purchased by a number of men who now constitute the present faculty from Theodore and May Wright Sewall for $6,200, subject to a mortgage of $5,000 held by the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company. It was then deeded to the Physio-Medical College by the purchasers, and it is this deed which was the important feature in the litigation. Claimants other than the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company and the grantors in the deed sought to hold an interest in the property and the college filed suit against them, with the exception of the life insurance company, making the members of the faculty defendants, to quiet the title. The deed in question provides that the male grantors shall be teachers and professors in the school and details minutely the course of instruction to be pursued. In outlining the provisions regarding the school the deed says "that the said principles of said school of medicine forbid the teaching or practice of the theory or doctrine that known poisons of any kind or character shall be used as remedies for diseases or as palliatives, and require that said poisons should only be employed in resplendent again in the latest after-din- connection with surgical operations as The papers this (Friday) morning con- the members of a cuchre club who came ner outfit. It is said of Jones that a pair anaesthetics or in destroying parasites or e things which it is desirable to and that no member of the faculty of the grantee herein who may at any time, publicily or privately, teach the use or application of any agent that is known to physio-medicalists to be poisonous, noxious or destructive in its effect on the human system, or that hereafter shall be proven to possess such properties. Besides these provisions for conducting the school the most rigid rules are laid down for teachers and demonstrators. It is set out in the deed that if any member of the faculty, teacher or demonstrator shall be found guilty of using poison in violation of the doctrine of physio-medicalists fail the title should at once revert to the From that time on Jones became the grantors, their interests to be determined 'best dressed" man. It is told of him that by the amount of labor and number of new teachers. The deed gives them an interest in the property proportionately equal to the others, based upon the num-These numerous provisions the judge held

title to the college for the property. MARRIAGES THAT FAILED.

Courts for Divorce.

A handsome, sylishly-dressed woman Artie J. Mills yesterday filed suit against the boy, nor has he inquired about their "But I am sure I left it here on the welfare. She charges that he is trying to estrange the son from his sister, and with a decree asks for the custody of both children to bring them up together. She asks woman was greatly disturbed. In the mean- for an allowance of $5 a week for their maintenance. Otto Kafader, defendant in a divorce suit She says they were married Nov. 28, 1901. touch it, but did not let it get out of his and that he deserted her March 14, 1902. She alleges that since their marriage he has been cruel to her and has failed to provide for her. She avers that he did spend more than $10 for clothing for her during their married life, and that he vided a house for them to live in but short time. The remainder of the time, she avers, they lived with his and her parents She charges that their home was scantily furnished, the only provision for heating being a cooking stove. She avers that he did not provide fuel for this, and all they had was what he brought home in a basket from his place of business. She also charges that he tried to compel her to pick up coal on the railroad for fuel, and that when he left her and their infant child he told her she could "hustle" her own coal. G. W. Biegler, of Terre Haute, was here She also avers that he neglected her and is asked for their support. George W. Logan filed suit against his wife. Melcena F. Logan, for divorce. He avers that his wife has a bad temper, curses him and is cross and sour. He alleges that after he worked hard all day she compelled him to sleep on the floor and refused to cook his meals. They were married in Cartersburg in 1879, and he avers that the older she gets the worse she be-

Clarence C. McLean filed suit against his wife, Alice C. McLean, for divorce. He avers that she deserted him in Lagrange, III. while he was away on business and that she has refused to live with him.

TWO STREET-CAR SUITS.

Walker $1,500 for Injuries. Paul Bonner yesterday filed suit against.

the street-car company for $5,000 damages. He avers that he boarded a street car on West Washington street, at Harding street, and offered the conductor 5 cents for fare leges that when his back was turned and while the car was running at the rate of fifteen miles an hour, the conductor attempted to throw him from the platform. He caught a hand-hold on one of the bars of the rear platform and held to it to keep from falling, he avers, when the conductor kicked him in the groin and inflicted a permanent injury. He also avers that in falling he was bruised and that he Hotel last night. Mr. Nowlin estimates has expended $300 for medical treatment Amos H. Walker filed suit against the street-car company for $1,500 damages. He avers that a car struck his hay wagon at Illinois and Thirteenth streets, threw him to the pavement and dislocated his shoulder.

Suit Over Brick-Making Machine.

Judge Baker, of the Federal Court, yesterday watched lawyers manipulate models of brick-making machines while they ar-Democratic state committee, is at the gued a patent suit. The suit was brought Grand Hotel. He came yesterday to "visit" by the Chrisholm, Boyd & White Company, of Chicago, against the Anderson foundry and machine works. The Chicago firm alleges that a man named Berg worked for it several years and then made a brick-makthere at the same time. The editors have ing machine which he leased to the Anderson company. It is charged that Berg embodied several of the ideas in the plaintiff's machine in that of his own.

THE COURT RECORD. SUPERIOR COURT.

Room 1-John L. McMaster, Judge. The Physio-Medical College of Indiana s. George Hasty et al.; to quiet title. Finding that plaintiff is the owner of real

Jap Rose Juap

one-sixth pure glycerin, is moderate in price but unsurpassed in quality.

With the perfume of natural flowers, there is no transparent soap so agreeable and delightful for toilet and bath.

Its maker's reputation is a guarantee of its high quality.

JAMES S. KIRK & COMPANY RAIN WATER MAKER-SOFTENS THE HARDEST WATER SEND TEN CENTS FOR SAMPLE

The real art of piano playing lies in the EXPRESSION. IT'S THE CRANK

on the SIMPEX that has achieved such wonderful results and which has made the SIMPLEX the best plano player on the market to-day. If you really are interested and want to know why the SIMPLEX is so much simpler, so much more easily played upon than any other piane player, examine all the rest and make comparison with the SIMPLEX. Call or write for catalogue.

Sold for Cash or on Easy Payments

Indiana's Largest Music House

Pennsylvania St.

Ground in Refined Lin-

128 & 130 North

HARMON & HALL, 137 and 139 W. Washington St.

estate described in complaint and entitled Pulaski C. C. Reversed. Hadley, J .- 1. A to have its title quieted, at its cost. Room 3-Vinson Carter, Judge.

William C. Smith vs. Sarah A. Hibben et al.: foreclosure. Evidence heard; taken under advisement. R. T. Levey & Bro. vs. Edwin F. Shideler et al.; contract. Finding and judgment against defendants for $30.14 and costs. CIRCUIT COURT.

Henry Clay Allen, Judge. Allen Chapel African Methodist Episcopal Church vs. Luella Walden et al.; to establish will. Cause dismissed; judgment against plaintiff for costs. Mary Bryant vs. Albert Bryant; divorce. Defendant defaulted; submitted to court; finding for plaintiff; decree of divorce; plaintiff's maiden name, Mary Stewart, restored; custody of child, William Bryant, awarded plaintiff; judgment against plaintiff for costs; order forbidding marriage for two years. Albert H. Horst vs. Susie Horst; divorce. Defendant defaulted; submitted to court; finding for plaintiff; decree of divorce; judgment against plaintiff for costs. George K. Waldo et al. vs. C., C., C. & St. L. Railway Company et al.; possession, Trial resumed; additional evidence heard.

NEW SUITS FILED. Willard W. Hubbard vs. Amanda F. Greenman et al.; to quiet title. Circuit Seth M. Richcreek vs. Isaac Russell et al.; ejectment, Superior Court, Room Clarence C. McLain vs. Alice C. McLain; divorce. Superior Court, Room 2. Wulschner Music Company vs. Elma Dare; foreclosure of chattel mortgage. Superior Court, Room 1. Amos H. Walker vs. Indianapolis Streetrailway Company; damages. Demand, $1,500. Superior Court, Room 3 William P. Herod vs. Levenia D. Athon et al.; mortgage foreclosure. Superior Court, Room Ida Anna Kafader vs. Otto Kafader; divorce. Superior Court, Room 3. Wulschner Music Company vs. A. L. Porter et al.; note. Superior Court, Room 3. Artie J. Mills vs. Joseph Clinton Mills; divorce. Superior Court, Room 2 Paul Bonner vs. Indianapolis Street-railway Company; damages. Demand, $5,000. Superior Court, Room Ellen C. Taylor vs. Albert P. Taylor; divorce. Superior Court, Room 1. George W. Logan vs. Melcena F. Logan; divorce. Superior Court, Room 1.

HIGHER COURTS' RECORD.

SUPREME COURT. 19514. Horner vs. McConnell. Lagrange C. C. Affirmed. Jordan, C. J.-Where parents agree, orally, to give a child certain real estate, providing she moves and lives thereon and makes certain improvements, a strict compliance on the part of the child will entitle her to a decree for a specific performance against the parent, and the only statute of limitations applicable to such a case is that of fifteen years. 19689. P., C., C. & St. L. Ry. Co. vs. Fish. dismissal of cross-errors.

nial challenges proof of every material averment of the complaint, based upon statutory proceedings, which means proof by competent evidence dehors the complaint of every step in the statutory scheme that leads up to it. 19815. Jester vs. Gustin, Madison S. C. Affirmed. Monks, J.-In an action by beirs of a decedent to enforce a vendor's lies against real estate sold by decedent in his lifetime, it is not necessary to make the will of the decedent an exhibit to the complaint when, by the will, plaintiff received an interest in the property for which the action is brought. 3925. Emerick vs. Miller. Wabash C. C. Transferred to Supreme Court.

personal judgment may be rendered again

a railroad for a street assessment, and in allowing such attorney's fees may be included. 2. In actions for the enforcement of a right granted by a special statute the complaint and proof must show that all the conditions upon which the right depends have been complied with. 3. A general de-19761. Board of Commissioners of Owen county et al. vs. Richard Newport. Owen C. C. Amended assignment of errors, crosserrors. Appellee's brief. APPELLATE COURT.

-Minute.-

3514. Roehrs vs. Timmons. Allen C. C. Reversed. Robinson, P. J.-1. There is no implied covenant on the part of a landlord to repair leased premises. 2. A tenant has possession and control of whatever passes to him under his lease, and the landlord has no right to go upon the premises without the tenant's consent. 3. If a landlord leases premises, knowing at the time they are in a defective condition, and conceals that fact from the tenant, he may be held liable for damages without regard to any question as to his duty to make repairs. But if the premises are in a safe condition when leased and afterwards become defective, and an injury, by reason thereof, takes place, the landlord is not liable therefor, unless it was his duty to make

3972. Lillard vs. Mather. Blackford C. C. Affirmed. Henley, J .- In order to become a part of the record the special findings must either be signed by the judge or made a part of the record by bill of exceptions or order of court 3606, City of Indianapolis vs. Craus. Marion S. C. Reversed. Comstock, C. J .- 1. In an action against a city for a personal injury by reason of a defective street crossing the complaint must show that the street crossing was within the corporate limits of the city. 2. Where a city is charged with damages on account of faulty drainage it must be shown that the latter was caused by acts of omission or commission on the part of the city. 4134. Wabash R. R. Co. vs. Keister. Warren C. C. Motion to dismiss overruled.

-Minute.-4261. Franklin Insurance Company va. Charles Wolff. Laporte S. C. Appellee's

Petition to advance granted.

4262. Whitcomb vs. Stringer. Marion S. C.

This signature is on every box of the genuine Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets